

50404 Student Organizations

Social, professional and other student organizations are considered an integral part of the College's total educational program. Students with common interests may form recognized student organizations for any legal purpose. All student organizations must be recognized by the College in order to receive funding. Procedures have been established for this purpose. The College will encourage broad, diverse representation in all student organizations, consistent with the College's commitment to valuing diversity.

(Amended 10/23/84; 12/17/96; 5/26/15)